

RIDING MILL DRAMA CLUB CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

Riding Mill Drama Club recognizes its duty of care under the Children and Young Persons Act 1963, the Child (Performances) Regulations 1968, the Protection of Children Act 1999 and the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (in Scotland change to Protection of Children (Scotland) Act 2003).

The club recognises that abuse can take many forms, whether it be physical abuse, emotional abuse, sexual abuse or neglect. The club is committed to practice which protects children from harm. All members of the club accept and recognize their responsibilities to develop awareness of the issues which cause children harm.

The club believes that:

- The welfare of the child is paramount.
- All children, whatever their age, culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin, religious beliefs and/or sexual identity have the right to protection from abuse.
- All suspicions and allegations of abuse should be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately.
- All members and employees of the club should be clear on how to respond appropriately.

The club will ensure that:

- All children will be treated equally and with respect and dignity.
- The duty of care to children will always be put first.
- A balanced relationship based on mutual trust will be built which empowers the children to share in the decision making process.
- Enthusiastic and constructive feedback will be given rather than negative criticism.
- Bullying will not be accepted or condoned.
- All adult members of the club provide a positive role model for dealing with other people.
- Action will be taken to stop any inappropriate verbal or physical behaviour.
- It will keep up-to-date with health & safety legislation.
- It will keep informed of changes in legislation and policies for the protection of children.
- It will undertake relevant development and training.
- It will hold a register of every child involved with the club and will retain a contact name and number close at hand in case of emergencies.

The club has child protection procedures which accompany this policy.

The club has a dedicated Child Protection Officer, who is in charge of ensuring that the child protection policy and procedures are adhered to. That person's name is Miss Judith Wilthew and she can be contacted on 01434682590

This policy will be regularly monitored by the Committee of the club and will be subject to annual review.

Date: 1 August 2011